

WHO DEFENDS MORE AGRO-TOXINS?

IN THE CHAMBER, THE INTERESTS OF AGRO-BUSINESS ARE REPRESENTED BY 207 DEPUTIES, EQUIVALENT TO 40% OF THE CHAMBER

IN THE SPECIAL COMMISSION OF PL 6299/02, THE PERCENTAGE OF RURALISTS IS EVEN MORE: 37 OF 50 OR 74% OF THE COMMISSION

WHO FINANCES THE SPECIAL COMMISSION?

Some donors of the 2014 election campaign linked to agro-business

TEREZA CRISTINA
(DEM-MS)

President of Agricultural Front of Congress and the Special Commission

JACO AGRICOLA – Manufacturer of ethanol
R$ 1.025 MILLION

ANTIGA COSAN - Raizen is the largest individual producer of sugar and ethanol in the country
R$ 200,000

JBS – Food Industry
R$ 103,000

FIBRIA – Major global producer of cellulose from eucalyptus
R$ 50,000

VALDIR COLATTO
(MDB-SC)

First vice-president of the Special Commission

CLAIDES LAZARETTI – From Masutti Farms
R$ 215,000

COSAN – Management of properties
R$ 50,000

ALLIANCE ONE BRAZIL – Tobacco exporter
R$ 30,000

RAIMUNDO GOMES
(PSDB-CE)

Second vice-president of the Special Commission

Nufarm Indústria Química e Farmacêutica – Producer of more than 20 agro-toxins
R$ 35,000

LUIZ NISHIMORI
(PR-PR)

Draftsman of the PL

JBS – Food industry
R$ 400,000

SEARA ALIMENTOS – Food industry
R$ 300,000

COSAN – Management of properties
R$ 100,000